

Hopeweaver Morning Prayer

O God, you are my God, I seek you,

my soul thirsts for you; my flesh faints for you,
as in a dry and weary land where there is no water. Psalm 63:1

Jesus said to her, 'Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life.' John 4:13-14

We give thanks to God for the gift of living water through Christ Jesus as we welcome the gift of this new day.

Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and put a new and right spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence,
and do not take your Holy Spirit from me.
Restore to me the joy of your salvation,
and sustain in me a willing spirit. Psalm 51:10-12

A time of silence as we bring to mind anything that is preventing us from drawing closer to God.

Hear my prayer, O LORD; let my cry come to you. Psalm 102:1

We bring before God people and places in need of healing and those dear to us, as we seek God's love and protection.

The Lord's Prayer

May God be gracious to us and bless us
and make his face to shine upon us,
that your way may be known upon earth,
your saving power among all nations.
Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you. Psalm 67:1-3

Hopeweaver Evening Prayer

Let my prayer be counted as incense before you, and the lifting up of my hands as an evening sacrifice. Psalms 141:2

A silence as we bring to God all that has happened during this day, thanking God for the glimpses of hope and of the Divine that we have shared.

For God alone my soul waits in silence;
from him comes my salvation.
God alone is my rock and my salvation,
my fortress; I shall never be shaken. Psalms 62:1-2

‘The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me
to bring good news to the poor.

to let the oppressed go free,
to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favour.’ Luke 4:18-19

Hopeweaver Night Prayer

My soul waits for the Lord
more than those who watch for the morning,
more than those who watch for the morning. Psalms 130:6

In a time of silence we gather together all our words, actions and hopes for the seeds that have been planted in the day that is past.

My soul is satisfied as with a rich feast,
and my mouth praises you with joyful lips
when I think of you on my bed,
and meditate on you in the watches of the night;
for you have been my help,
and in the shadow of your wings I sing for joy.
My soul clings to you;
your right hand upholds me. Psalms 63:5-8

We bring before God all those dear to us and seek God's love and protection on us all.

Those who live at earth’s farthest bounds are
awed by your signs;
you make the gateways of the morning
and of the evening shout for joy. Psalms 65:8

We place all we no longer need to hold into God's safe keeping.

I will both lie down and sleep in peace;
for you alone, O LORD, make me lie down in safety. Psalms 4:8

May God be gracious to us and bless us
and make his face to shine upon us,
that your way may be known upon earth,
your saving power among all nations.
Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you. Psalms 67:1-3
