

OPEN STUDIOS

THE FIRS ART AND MUSIC STUDIO

We have many wonderful pieces of art on display from artists all over Hampshire. We are proud to be one of the few open studios concentrating on music themed art and are delighted to invite people to come and enjoy time at the studio, viewing the art, the gardens and feel free to enjoy a cup of tea and a slice of cake whilst you chat away 10 minutes or the whole day.

Saturday 17th – Monday 26th August

Open everyday 11am – 6pm and until 8pm on Thursdays

ARTISTS INCLUDE

Andy Milwain of a.m drums - www.facebook.com/amdrumsuk

Hilda Margery Clarke (BAHons FRSA) - Painting in oils, oil pastels and drawings, known for figures, glimpsed or imaginative.

Jutta Manser, Wood Engravings - Jazz, born in oppression, pictured in stark black and white engravings.

Rosie Aldridge Photography – <http://www.rosiealdridge.co.uk/>

Alex Newstead Photography – www.alexnewstead.com

Louise Tett - Memory and history are strong influences. My pieces use discarded manuscripts, at first their language seems inaccessible, but once altered their beauty can be played in a new way.

Chris Knight – 3D Photography

Derrick Knight – 1970's Soho photography

Liz Knight – Handmade books and music themed photographic prints

Adam and Thea Keenan - Now London based, Adam is originally from The Firs and we are delighted to have his and Thea's support for our open studio this year

Geoff Poulton, Jacqui and Harriet Lea – various pieces to include music themed sculpture, collage and papier mache
